

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award

2019

The Duke Edinburgh's International Award is an internationally recognised program for young people between the ages of 14 and 25, building their skills to equip them for life and work. By creating opportunities for young people to develop skills, get physically active, give service and experience adventure. The Award is about individual challenge and can play a critical role in their development. Students follow their interests and passions over three levels: Bronze, Silver and Gold. Chatswood High School offers the highly popular extra-curricular program, The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award, to all students in years 9-12 at CHS.

Year 9 students in 2019 are encouraged to begin the Bronze Award under the guidance and support of the CHS Award Leader.
